Within Campión's bounds lie several of Texas' most historic trails and crossings. These include the original Keenan's Crossing Bridge along the Bird's Fort Trail, which Sam Houston traveled en route to signing The Treaty of Peace and Friendship in 1843, leading to the end of hostilities with the Indians; and California Crossing, a junction along the California Trail favored by '49ers as they journeyed west seeking fortunes of gold. ## Texas Tax-Free Weekend

For one designated weekend in August, Texas shoppers are free from paying state or local sales tax on most clothing and school supply purchases. In most DFW cities, this means savings of about 8.25 cents on the dollar. This yearly event saves Texans and visitors nearly 90 million dollars, and many retailers hold sales as a bonus. Check comptroller.texas.gov for more information.

We're known for great food. When you're hungry, you won't have to travel very far or wait too long to satisfy your craving, but you might have trouble making up your mind. From Southwestern cuisine to home-style to ethnic specialty to elegant dining, it's all on the table here in Irving.

See the end of this section (page 68) for a compiled listing of restaurants located at Toyota Music Factory and Water Street!
